

Van: Ivo Haaijer <i.haaijer@merkwerk.nl>
Onderwerp: URGENT Notice of Internet Intellectual Property Rights "Merkwerk" Dispute in China
Datum: 30 juli 2010 11:46:29 GMT+02:00

▶ 1 bijlage, 2,6 KB

Van: jack.liu@tcdns-china.net
Datum: 30 juli 2010 04:52:20 GMT+02:00
Aan: info@merkwerk.nl
Onderwerp: URGENT Notice of Internet Intellectual Property Rights "Merkwerk" Dispute in China
Antwoord aan: jack.liu@tcdns-china.net

(If you are NOT CEO, please forward this to your CEO, because this is urgent. Thanks.)
Dear CEO,

We are the department of Asian Domain registration service in China, have something need to confirm with you. we formally received an application on July 29, 2010. one company which called "Brazil Kirkois Investment S.A" are applying to register "Merkwerk" as Brand Name and Domains.

merkwerk.cn (China)
merkwerk.com.cn (China)
merkwerk.com.hk (Hong Kong)
merkwerk.com.tw (Taiwan)
merkwerk.hk (Hong Kong)
merkwerk.in (India)
merkwerk.net.cn (China)
merkwerk.org.cn (China)
merkwerk.tw (Taiwan)

But we found that "Brazil Kirkois Investment S.A" is not the original owner of the brand and trademark in the checking period, which belong to your company. I need confirm with you whether your company authorized that company to register these domain name. If you have done that, we will finish the registration for them and link to their website.

If not, please let me know ASAP.

In addition, we hereby affirm that our time limit for dissent application is 7 workdays. If your company files no dissent within the time limit, we will unconditionally approve the application.

Best Regards,

Jack Liu (Mr)
Auditing Consultant

Tel: +0086-566-2629-555 Fax: +0086-566-2629-666

<http://www.tcdns-china.org>

Address: Room 205, No. D4 Qingxi South Garden, South-Changjiang Road, Guichi Shi District, Chizhou, China